In the Declaration of the Heads of State and Government on the ECOWAS 50th Anniversary, the leaders:

- Reaffirmed their commitment to peace, security, democratic governance, and the rule of law;
- Pledged to deepen economic integration, trade, and regional interconnectivity;
- Called for unified efforts to address pressing challenges such as terrorism, violent extremism, climate change, and youth unemployment;
- Encouraged citizens, civil society, youth and women's groups, the private sector, and traditional leaders to actively contribute to building an “ECOWAS of the People.”
