Ambassador Conteh Congratulates Liberia for its Historic Election to the UN Security Council for the term 2026-2027

Embassy of the Republic of Liberia in the United States ,

Tue, Jun 3, 2025

Today, we stand tall and proud as Liberia's name resonates across the halls of the United Nations, reflecting the collective dreams and aspirations of our great nation. I am honored to extend my heartfelt congratulations to His Excellency President Joseph Nyuma Boakai, Sr., Her Excellency Foreign Minister Sara Madame Beysolow Nyanti, and their capable team for their tireless efforts in securing Liberia's election as a non-permanent member of the UN Security Council for 2026-27.

Ambassador Conteh

This remarkable achievement is a testament to the unwavering dedication of our government, the resilience of our people, and the enduring spirit of our forebears who paved the way for our progress. I pay tribute to the local and international partners who have supported us on this journey, believing in Liberia's potential to contribute meaningfully to global peace and security.

As we celebrate this victory, we also recognize the immense responsibility that comes with it. It is time to roll up our sleeves and work diligently to create a just and peaceful world. Let us harness our collective energy, expertise, and passion to promote peace, security, and development, not only for our nation but for the world at large.

To the people of Liberia and our friends around the globe, thank you for your unwavering support. Let us continue to work together, united in our pursuit of a brighter future for all.

Congratulations, Liberia! May this new chapter in our history be filled with purpose, progress, and pride.

Long live Liberia! Long live the United Nations!

Signed:
Al-Hassan Conteh., Ph.D
