City Council of Philadelphia Honors Ambassador Conteh on the 50th Anniversary of ODUNDE in Philadelphia, PA, USA

Embassy of the Republic of Liberia in the United States, Fri, Jun 6, 2025

Philadelphia, PA, June 5, 2025):

On the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the ODUNDE Festival in Philadelphia, the City Council of Philadelphia has honored Dr. Al-Hassan Conteh, the Ambassador of Liberia to the United States.

The recognition ceremony took place at the COMCAST Technology Center in downtown Philadelphia.

The citation honoring Ambassador Conteh, signed by Hon. Kendra Brooks, Councilmember-at-large, and Hon. Kenyatta Johnson, President of the City Council, was read by Mr. Stanley L. Straughter, a Board Member of the ODUNDE Festival. It stated, "The Council of the City of Philadelphia, the Mayor's Commission on African and Caribbean Immigrant Affairs, and the African and Caribbean Business Council of Greater Philadelphia are pleased to honor and recognize Ambassador Dr. Al-Hassan Conteh of Liberia during his visit to Philadelphia for the 50th anniversary of the ODUNDE Festival."

The ODUNDE Festival, which has its roots in the Yoruba people of Nigeria, celebrates the cultures and traditions of the African Diaspora.

It generates over $28 billion in revenue for businesses in Philadelphia and is the largest African American street festival in North America, attracting up to 500,000 attendees annually.

Ambassador Conteh was honored alongside the ambassadors of Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Mali, and Sierra
